Beginning Tai Chi Bang Stick for Flexibility and Strength at Schmucker

The Tai Chi Bang Stick is a unique method of training the joints and tendons. Like Qigong and Tai Chi, the movement of the Tai Chi Bang Stick is rooted in the feet, powered by the legs, directed by the waist and observed by the eyes. It is not widely known, even though it is a fast and efficient method for developing stronger and more flexible muscles and joints.

Some of the benefits from practicing Tai Chi Bang are: Improved hand strength for gripping and turning movements (like opening lids and turning a tight faucet). With continued practice it helps correct and prevent overuse injuries by strengthening the ligaments and tendons. Develops focus and attention skills, increases awareness of your joints, center, dan tain and spiral energy. Also develops hand, arm, leg and core strength and improves the physical conditioning of joints and ROM for the shoulder, elbow and wrist.

Tai Chi Bang sticks will be provided for class use only. Students should wear comfortable loose-fitting clothing and flat soled shoes to each class. Class is designed for adults and children 13 years and older may enroll with an adult. Class meets one night a week for a total of 10 classes. Class is not held on a few dates due to school closings or prior scheduled events.

P-H-M teams up with SchoolMessenger to provide timely alerts to parents

Penn-Harris-Madison School Corporation has contracted with SchoolMessenger, a leading provider of electronic notification services for parental outreach, emergency broadcasts and safety related messages.

The SchoolMessenger system is designed to automatically notify parents about school closings or delays, student safety as well as notices about important school activities. SchoolMessenger will not replace current school communication methods. Principals and teachers will still be accessible and will continue to communicate in a variety of ways.

SchoolMessenger notification services are provided by Reliance Communications. P-H-M parents can learn more and set their contact preferences by going to <https://www.phmschools.org/parents/schoolmessenger>.

Are you a potential instructor?

Is there a class you would like us to offer?

Do you have a talent or skill you'd like to share?

We're always interested in new ideas and would like to offer additional classes. Do you have a skill you'd like to share with the community? We enjoy bringing people together who want to share learning experiences with one another.

We are looking to offer some new classes in the fall of 2019. Here are some ideas of classes we would like to offer:

- Drawing
- Graphics/Publishing computer classes
