

Community Mental Health Providers

Please find a list of various mental health providers in our community. This list is not exhaustive and P-H-M does not endorse one organization over another. Individuals and families who choose to access services do so on a voluntary basis and release Penn-Harris-Madison from any claims, demands, legal action or liability. The list is simply a resource for families to explore on their own if they decide to do so while utilizing their own resources. If you are interested in more information, please reach out to the agency or reach out to your school counselor or Youth Service Bureau Specialist.
