Summer Reading Program
June 8 - August 8

Beginning Monday, June 8, keep track of minutes spent reading or listening to audiobooks or the number of books read.

Track your progress using our online program, READSquared at mphpl.readsquared.com or use our paper reading log!

Children's Summer Reading Program
Birth-Entering 5th Grade

- Reading incentive prizes will be given at the 300, 600, and 900 minute levels.
- The first day incentive prizes will be available is Monday, June 22.
- The last day to receive incentive prizes or submit digital raffle tickets into the end of summer drawing is Saturday, August 8.

END OF SUMMER PRIZES FOR BIRTH-ENTERING 5th GRADE

Earn a digital raffle ticket for a chance to win an end of summer prize for every 300 minutes read!

Teen Summer Reading Program
Entering Grades 6-12

This summer, YOU get to decide how you log your reading!

Choose between the minute path or book path:

- If you choose our minutes path, for every 300 minutes read, earn an entry slip for a chance to win an end of summer prize. Reading incentive prizes will be given at the 300, 600, and 900 minute levels.
- If you choose our book path, every 3 books read will earn you an entry slip for a chance to win an end of summer prize. Reading incentive prizes will be given at the 3, 6, and 9 book levels.

END OF SUMMER PRIZES TEENS ENTERING GRADES 6-12

Earn a digital raffle ticket for a chance to win an end of summer prize for every 300 minutes read!

- The first day incentive prizes will be available is Monday, June 22.
- The last day to receive incentive prizes or submit digital raffle tickets into the end of summer drawing is Saturday, August 8.

Adult Summer Reading Program
Ages 18+

Start logging the titles you read using our online program, READSquared, or by submitting paper progress slips during your library visits! Earn an entry into our end of summer prize drawing for each book read.

The last day to earn prize drawing entries is Saturday, August 8.

D&D™ Teens

Mondays: June 1-July 27
1-3 pm | Grades 8-12

Adventurers! Ready your sword-arm and prepare your spells! The library is looking for aspiring heroes to join us every Monday for D&D! New players are encouraged and we will cover the basics of character creation. To sign up, visit our website, click on Events > Calendar and find the June 1 date. You will receive an email detailing how to get started before game day. Huzzah!

D&D Quest Girls

Wednesdays: June 3-July 29
1-3 pm | Grades 8-12

In search of adventure? MPHPL will be running a weekly Dungeons & Dragons™ adventure for a group of 5 girls seeking to test their mettle in a fantasy world of heroes and villains! The game will be run on the roll20 virtual platform, and you will only need a computer/microphone/internet access to play. Beginners are encouraged to join, and once signed up (visit our website, click on Events > Calendar and find the June 3 date) you will receive an email detailing how to get started before game day. Join the Quest Girls and see what dangers and excitement lie ahead!

Adult Dungeons & Dragons™

Saturdays: June 6, June 20, July 18
11 am-4:45 pm | Adults (18+)

Desperate to get your Dungeons & Dragons™ fix? We understand that adulthood can make finding a group difficult, so we will be hosting a one-shot campaign for five heroes with the sternest of mettle! Attendees will be allowed to prepare a 6th level character in advance using ONLY the 5E Player's Handbook as a resource. For those registrants unable to do so, a pre-made character will be provided. Beginners are welcome. To sign up, visit our website, click on Events > Calendar and register for the date of your choice.
